

RUGBY ACADEMY

I wish there had been books like Tom Palmer's when I was growing up. Any book that encourages kids to read, and play grass roots rugby is great by me!

I thought reading was boring when I was at school. It didn't interest me. I wasn't a reader. Then I realised I could read about what did interest me.

Sport. I read match reports. I read magazines. I read sports books. And I realised I was a reader.
