THE HOLOCAUST

Adolf Hitler was the leader of the Germany during the Second World War and he was responsible for what has become known as the Holocaust.

Adolf Hitler was racist and anti-Semitic, which means that he hated Jewish people. He blamed them for Germany losing the First World War and believed that his country would be a better, stronger place if he were able to get rid of them. This became the policy of his government, and when he invaded other countries like Austria and Poland during the war, he was determined to get rid of the Jews living there too.

During the Holocaust, Hitler was responsible for the murder of around 6 million Jewish people in Europe. Nearly seven out of every ten Jews in Europe were killed just because of who they were. Many of them died in what became known as concentration camps, such as Auschwitz and Dachau.

The Nazis also targeted other groups, including gay people, Roma ("gypsies"), disabled people and those who disagreed with their political or religious views. Many millions of people from these other groups were also murdered.

The Holocaust became known as a genocide—the deliberate killing of a group of people because of their nationality, race or religion. On 27 January every year, people mark Holocaust Memorial Day and believe that it is important never to forget this terrible crime against humanity.

The Lake District Holocaust Project

In 1945 the people of Lakeland welcomed three hundred child Holocaust Survivors into their community. The children were to spend a period of recuperation in the Lakes before setting out on new lives. Arriving in the Lake District was described by the children as like being in "Paradise". It must have seemed so following years of unimaginable horror in the concentration camps and ghettos of Nazi Occupied Europe.

The Lake District Holocaust Project was established in 2013 after eight years of intense research activity, Holocaust education work, oral history interviews, travels to Poland, Germany, Czech Republic, Holland, France and throughout the UK. A touring exhibition of photographs and multi-media installations, "Auschwitz to Ambleside", with an accompanying interactive tour by Holocaust survivors, visited Extended Services school clusters and communities in the Lakes area and South Lakeland during 2008 to 2009. A small permanent exhibition is located in Windermere Library.

Origins of the Red Cross Movement

The International Red Cross and Red Crescent Movement started in 1863, inspired by Swiss businessman Henry Dunant.

The suffering of thousands of men on both sides of the Battle of Solferino in 1859 upset Dunant. Many were left to die due to lack of care.

He proposed creating national relief societies, made up of volunteers, trained in peacetime to provide neutral and impartial help to relieve suffering in times of war.

When the war ended in Europe on 8 May 1945 new services were needed. These included the repatriation of prisoners of war and welfare services for disabled former service men and women.
