

QUIZ DELVILLE WOOD

Answer the following questions as you listen to the video. It may help to read through the questions before the video begins.

 □ Delville Wood □ London □ Edinburgh 2. What happened at Delville Wood? □ Delville Wood is where soldiers with battle wounds were taken. □ Delville Wood was the site of a terrible battle in which many soldiers died. □ Delville Wood is where families fled to escape the fighting. 3. Why was Jack's battalion instructed to 'take' Delville Wood? □ So that they would be closer to the German trenches beyond. □ The Generals didn't tell the soldiers why they had to fight for Delville Wood. ⁴. What is Tom standing in that was made by one of the shells during battle in WW1? □ A clearing in Delville Wood. □ A dried up lake. □ A crater. ⑤. How is the picture Tom shows of Delville Wood right after the war different from what it looks like now? □ Right after the war the trees in Delville Wood were burned away and everything was dead-looking. □ Right after the war, Delville Wood was green and full of life. 	I. Where does Tom say this section of the book Over the Line takes place?
 □ Edinburgh 2. What happened at Delville Wood? □ Delville Wood is where soldiers with battle wounds were taken. □ Delville Wood was the site of a terrible battle in which many soldiers died. □ Delville Wood is where families fled to escape the fighting. 3. Why was Jack's battalion instructed to 'take' Delville Wood? □ So that they would be closer to the German trenches beyond. □ The Generals didn't tell the soldiers why they had to fight for Delville Wood. ⁴. What is Tom standing in that was made by one of the shells during battle in WW1? □ A clearing in Delville Wood. □ A dried up lake. □ A crater. ⑤. How is the picture Tom shows of Delville Wood right after the war different from what it looks like now? □ Right after the war the trees in Delville Wood were burned away and everything was dead-looking. 	☐ Delville Wood
 2. What happened at Delville Wood? Delville Wood is where soldiers with battle wounds were taken. Delville Wood was the site of a terrible battle in which many soldiers died. Delville Wood is where families fled to escape the fighting. 3. Why was Jack's battalion instructed to 'take' Delville Wood? So that they would be closer to the German trenches beyond. The Generals didn't tell the soldiers why they had to fight for Delville Wood. 4. What is Tom standing in that was made by one of the shells during battle in WW1? A clearing in Delville Wood. A dried up lake. A crater. 5. How is the picture Tom shows of Delville Wood right after the war different from what it looks like now? Right after the war the trees in Delville Wood were burned away and everything was dead-looking. 	London
 □ Delville Wood is where soldiers with battle wounds were taken. □ Delville Wood was the site of a terrible battle in which many soldiers died. □ Delville Wood is where families fled to escape the fighting. 3. Why was Jack's battalion instructed to 'take' Delville Wood? □ So that they would be closer to the German trenches beyond. □ The Generals didn't tell the soldiers why they had to fight for Delville Wood. ⁴. What is Tom standing in that was made by one of the shells during battle in WW1? □ A clearing in Delville Wood. □ A dried up lake. □ A crater. 5. How is the picture Tom shows of Delville Wood right after the war different from what it looks like now? □ Right after the war the trees in Delville Wood were burned away and everything was dead-looking. 	□ Edinburgh
 Delville Wood was the site of a terrible battle in which many soldiers died. Delville Wood is where families fled to escape the fighting. 3. Why was Jack's battalion instructed to 'take' Delville Wood? So that they would be closer to the German trenches beyond. The Generals didn't tell the soldiers why they had to fight for Delville Wood. 4. What is Tom standing in that was made by one of the shells during battle in WW1? A clearing in Delville Wood. A dried up lake. A crater. 5. How is the picture Tom shows of Delville Wood right after the war different from what it looks like now? Right after the war the trees in Delville Wood were burned away and everything was dead-looking. 	2. What happened at Delville Wood?
 □ Delville Wood is where families fled to escape the fighting. 3. Why was Jack's battalion instructed to 'take' Delville Wood? □ So that they would be closer to the German trenches beyond. □ The Generals didn't tell the soldiers why they had to fight for Delville Wood. ⁴. What is Tom standing in that was made by one of the shells during battle in WW1? □ A clearing in Delville Wood. □ A dried up lake. □ A crater. 5. How is the picture Tom shows of Delville Wood right after the war different from what it looks like now? □ Right after the war the trees in Delville Wood were burned away and everything was dead-looking. 	☐ Delville Wood is where soldiers with battle wounds were taken.
 3. Why was Jack's battalion instructed to 'take' Delville Wood? So that they would be closer to the German trenches beyond. The Generals didn't tell the soldiers why they had to fight for Delville Wood. 4. What is Tom standing in that was made by one of the shells during battle in WW1? A clearing in Delville Wood. A dried up lake. A crater. 5. How is the picture Tom shows of Delville Wood right after the war different from what it looks like now? Right after the war the trees in Delville Wood were burned away and everything was dead-looking. 	☐ Delville Wood was the site of a terrible battle in which many soldiers died.
 So that they would be closer to the German trenches beyond. □ The Generals didn't tell the soldiers why they had to fight for Delville Wood. ⁴. What is Tom standing in that was made by one of the shells during battle in WW1? □ A clearing in Delville Wood. □ A dried up lake. □ A crater. ⑤. How is the picture Tom shows of Delville Wood right after the war different from what it looks like now? □ Right after the war the trees in Delville Wood were burned away and everything was dead-looking. 	☐ Delville Wood is where families fled to escape the fighting.
 □ The Generals didn't tell the soldiers why they had to fight for Delville Wood. ⁴. What is Tom standing in that was made by one of the shells during battle in WW1? □ A clearing in Delville Wood. □ A dried up lake. □ A crater. ⁵. How is the picture Tom shows of Delville Wood right after the war different from what it looks like now? □ Right after the war the trees in Delville Wood were burned away and everything was dead-looking. 	3. Why was Jack's battalion instructed to 'take' Delville Wood?
 4. What is Tom standing in that was made by one of the shells during battle in WW1? A clearing in Delville Wood. A dried up lake. A crater. 5. How is the picture Tom shows of Delville Wood right after the war different from what it looks like now? Right after the war the trees in Delville Wood were burned away and everything was dead-looking. 	\square So that they would be closer to the German trenches beyond.
 □ A clearing in Delville Wood. □ A dried up lake. □ A crater. ⑤. How is the picture Tom shows of Delville Wood right after the war different from what it looks like now? □ Right after the war the trees in Delville Wood were burned away and everything was dead-looking. 	☐ The Generals didn't tell the soldiers why they had to fight for Delville Wood.
 □ A dried up lake. □ A crater. 5. How is the picture Tom shows of Delville Wood right after the war different from what it looks like now? □ Right after the war the trees in Delville Wood were burned away and everything was dead-looking. 	4. What is Tom standing in that was made by one of the shells during battle in WW1?
☐ A crater. 5. How is the picture Tom shows of Delville Wood right after the war different from what it looks like now? ☐ Right after the war the trees in Delville Wood were burned away and everything was dead-looking.	☐ A clearing in Delville Wood.
 How is the picture Tom shows of Delville Wood right after the war different from what it looks like now? Right after the war the trees in Delville Wood were burned away and everything was dead-looking. 	☐ A dried up lake.
now? Right after the war the trees in Delville Wood were burned away and everything was dead-looking.	□ A crater.
_
Right after the war, Delville Wood was green and full of life.	Right after the war the trees in Delville Wood were burned away and everything was dead-looking
	Right after the war, Delville Wood was green and full of life.

ANSWER KEY DELVILLE WOOD

Answer the following questions as you listen to the video. It may help to read through the questions before the video begins.

. Where does Tom say this section of the book Over the Line takes place?
■ Delville Wood
London
☐ Edinburgh
2. What happened at Delville Wood?
Delville Wood is where soldiers with battle wounds were taken.
■ Delville Wood was the site of a terrible battle in which many soldiers died.
Delville Wood is where families fled to escape the fighting.
3. Why was Jack's battalion instructed to 'take' Delville Wood?
So that they would be closer to the German trenches beyond.
☐ The Generals didn't tell the soldiers why they had to fight for Delville Wood.
4. What is Tom standing in that was made by one of the shells during battle in WW1?
☐ A clearing in Delville Wood.
☐ A dried up lake.
A crater.
5. How is the picture Tom shows of Delville Wood right after the war different from what it looks like now?
Right after the war the trees in Delville Wood were burned away and everything was dead-looking
Right after the war, Delville Wood was green and full of life.