

RESIST by Tom Palmer

In “Resist”, young Edda lives in Nazi occupied Holland during the Second World War. Colour in her bicycle and draw brave Edda. Now think about where is she going? She could be delivering resistance newsletters, alongside bombed out buildings passing tanks on the street, whilst Spitfires fly overhead. Or is she cycling into the countryside foraging for tulip bulbs and nettles to eat? Or could she be standing up to Nazi soldiers and taking rescue packages to British airmen hiding in the woods? You choose!

