

TOM PALMER

“There are books about a thousand things in every library and bookshop. Whatever you are interested in, there will be something for you. Have a look. Ask the librarian. And, when you find it, enjoy it.”

